

I favor the restriction of telephone solicitation to the extent of the current law of my state of Indiana. It is working well and makes mealtime much more pleasant than prior to the effective date of enforcement of the law.